

Published by the Press Publishing Company SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 22.

SUESCRIPTIONS TO THE EVENING WORLD

(Including Postage):

Entered at the Post-Office at New York as second-class matter.

EF BRANCH OFFICES : WORLD UPTOWN OFFICE-1207 BROADWAY, between 31st and 32d sts., New York.
BROOKLYN - 359 FULTON ST. HARLEMNews Department, 150 East 1257H ST. Adents at 237 East 115TH St. PHILADELPHIA, PA.—LEDORR BULDING, 112

SOUTH OTH ST. WASHINGTON—61014TR ST.
LONDON OFFICE—32 COCRAFUR ST., TRAFAL-

The Evening World Prints Associ ated Press News.

MAINLY DONE FOR SHOW.

Commissioner BEATTIE's men clean the fashionable streets uptown, but neglect the poorer streets on the east and west not know this. But now that his attention is called to the fact there is no the tenement-house districts should be tractor free from filth, for it breeds disease and death in these quarters.

What cleaning there is appears to be from the Alliance cross-examination. done more to make the best showing rather than for the best interests of the people. A larger amount of money is spent than ever before, and there is good reason to believe that much of it is wasted. Commissioner Beattre should brace up and do something. The Evenreo Wonip's cru-ade is made in deadly carnest, as he is likely to find out later on. are rejoicing. They thank you, Miss

Ex-Assemblyman Invisa is complainant assaulted him with bricks, and whom he Chinamen. asks the law to punish. That he should be beaten this way is a kind of retributive justice, for there is no one man who as saulted more people in New York than this same Invino.

He kept a dive on Sixth avenue, into which unsuspecting strangers were jure i. After their money was gone his " bouncers" would throw them out. Did they resist, Invino sneaked up behind and smashed them over the heads with a club, a bottle or whatever courts? might be handlest. One day he Isn't the latitude of the American girl pounded a man nearly to death with a slowly working her ruln? pistol butt, was arrested and convicted. His political pull saved him from jail until another man was nearly murdered in his place. The papers took up the they not cheaper to the retail buyer? case, and he went to the penitentiary for

On his release he appeared in the sa oon, of which he says he is manager. | Sandy Hook boats, especially Saturday afterbut of which he is said to be proprietor, | noon? in spite of the law which forbids the granting of a license to convicted felons. It is in this saloon that he was assaulted, than the master of Ollendorf?

DESPERATION AT THE RACE TRACK.

Luck is, indeed, a fool at the race track and the pool-room. And is Pluck the and the pool-room. And is Pluck the Lero also there? Never. In his stead there sits Desycration, feverishly playing triburg, and Capt. Morrison, the nomines for for all he can get when Fortune turns his way, or as intemperately striving on in the face of loss after loss, in he imthe face of loss after loss, in the lin-potent madness of a belief that the tide dined regularly at "Dolly's" chop-house, and at of reverses must end at last.

not more, on second thought, for busi- A man fishing at Jersey (England) was caught ness, henor, reputation, all are at stake as the speculator becomes more and more descripted. The ruth of this is borne out desperate. The truth of this is borne out had caused." in the news columns of the papers almost

"He was a prosperous merchant five neck and hold him up. If a cur, he jeips; if years ago. He bet on the races," So read well-bred, he never utters a whimper. one of the headlines above the story of a recent suicide. "Lost three small fortunes; temptations of the race track too great for him to resist," is the way the headline writer has just summed up the case of a man arrested for raising money by petty forgeries. Does it pay to take these chances in a wild rush for Tantaius visions of wealth?

THE SIN OP KISSING.

Romance and Reality.

Bat at lunch in a cafe downtoms, And, while I cased, I saw the blue blood rise the tot their conner a cheeke, and at the floor She quite I is eveled both. I did rejoice, Until it finished dumb and through the doer Was going, when I heard her gantle voice. I saw that owner melt one and reveal to the control of the tunes; temptations of the race track too

"Some say that kissing's a sin," wrote Buens, the poet, and under certain circumstances it is, as a J. rseyman may be willing to bear witness this morning. Pleased with the appearance of a married woman, into whose house he had ventured, he attempted to sip the nectar of her lips. But he didn't, The lady, who was as muscular as she was beautiful, threw him down, stepped on him, survived a gridiron over his head and, with the as istance of her husband, who arrived later, threw him into the street.

It may be well to read the poets some-ALMY says that his crime was a brutal one, but insists that he is not a brute. He doubtless considers himself an aurisble, gentle young man, against whom the fates have conspired. Here is a case in which a bunching electrical execution would not seem so horrible.

woman who deserted her husband and children was found in New Jersey living with another man and arrested.

customer with hard-boiled eggs when that day I can say I have been perfectly well steak was ordered, did not know he was a prize-fighter, and is painfully reflecting. It is indeed peculial to itself, in that to-day on the fallacy of human intuition.

Bather a big price is $310 for a misfit coat, but that is what a Washington man Delevan st. Lambertville, N. J.

paid yesterday for one rejected by Andrew Jackson. He might better have followed the General's example.

The Lick Observatory astronomers are in a flutter over the startling discovery that there may be snow on the moon Just think of the old man of the moon pelting us with snowballs.

The Asrons are said to have withdrawn and the bell ringing, when a woman ran their opposition to cable cars on Fifth out from the sidewalk and waved her A Dime or a Dollar From You Will avenue. Quicker transit on this thor- parasol and shouted: oughfare would benefit the hotels the Astons are erecting.

would make an excellent Governor of and said to a policem in who had come up:

There is more in the Navy Yard pay. roll peculation than was thought at first. asked the officer. Spare no one. That a public office is a public trust should never be forgotten.

Jersey City's po ice should make extra on the street." efforts to capture the thief sho got into a "I should think you'd be alarmed and hospital on pretense of being sick and anxious." then robbed all the helpless patients.

then it will be believed.

sides and downtown. Mr. Beatrie may six men at bay and was killed only after Mebbe they'll have the sense to do it.

nouncement that Broadway will be fit for 'em to stop, but they wouldn't." It is most necessary that the streets in use by Nov. 15th. If it is only true, con-Senator Compos, believes, discretion to

> Here's cheerful news for our Italian colony. A macaroni company has been incorporated, with $30,000 capital, McKinger fires his first gun in the on sick leave. Hester street is clean and its residents

BLAINE is the most talked of man in the United States.

Sinmese Winds.

Chestnuts are on Peru's free list.

SOME PERTINENT QUESTIONS

How long will it be before there will be reform in the Coroner's office? If there is such a glut of peaches, why are What part is the Jenness-Miller legelettes going to play in the Chautauqua uniform?

Is there any limit to the capacity of the Doesn't Amelia Rives in "According to

. John" show herself the victim rather

WORLDLINGS.

Each of the two nominees of the Pennsylvani State Treasurer, saw hard service in several South

It is told of Dr. Fordyce, a noted English physiwhat is the consequence? To one who makes something on his ventures, hundred to his lecture-room to discourse to dreds lose all they risked and more. No.

The way to tell a well-bred dog, according to a canine function, is to grasp him by the back of the the rim and make a buzz-saw of it!"

VACRANT VERSES-

Romance and Reality.

The One Thing She Lacked.

The Great in lethyology,
Psychology,
Psychology,
And can hold her own with any Ph. D.;
She she discourse on astronomy,
Gastrinomy,
Philopolomy,
And on physics she can talk most perfectly,
She's secongilished on the bange,

Plane.
Once.
Once.
And can wartile as the nightingals sings;
She exactly knows what are pnoumatics.
Dahnatics.
Emphatics.
And numerous oriest dainty little things.
She has stadled the latest fashion.
Poems of passion.
Ants of mashin.
And glidly youth consider her quite a catch;
But she laces one little quality.
Not a frive fity.
She marely domails.

She marely doesn't know how to wind her watch. A Cordial Invitation.

Lost

My confidence, was all run down and unable to work—in an extreme condition of debility, when sold that Bood's Passacarsile was just what I She is now looked up under the law, needed. As a growning man grasps at a straw I which makes adultery a statutory crime, decided to try this meltine, and to my great surprise, from the first day I began to improve.

By the time I had finished my second bottle I The waiter who insisted on serving a had regained my health and a rength, and from have recommended Hood's Sarsaparilla to my friends, whom I know have been beneated by it.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

A Brooklyn ambulance was rushing up Court street, with the horse on a dead run

"Hold on a minute-hold on till I ask you a question!" The vehicle continued its pace, and she Col. LAMONT SAYS Mr. CLEVELAND looked after it a moment and then turned

New York. Of course he would. His "Well, it won't be my fault if they are former occupancy of that office shows it. put to a lot of extra trouble. I was going to tell them how to handle him." "Do you know who has been burt?

> "I think they are after my husband up on Sacke t street. He isn't burted, I don't think, but he's fallen down in a fit

"Oh, no. He takes those fits very often. Every time he wants a dollar and Sunol is not "all right again," notwith- I refuse it he goes down on the si lewalk, standing the report to the contrary. Let begins to dance and holler, and ends up her better her three-year-old record, and by falling in a fit. I wanted to tell thom C. H. how to manage him to save trouble."

"How do you do it?" CATHLEO, the bandit, has died in his "Elevate his head, lower his feet and boots, and presumably happily. He held blow in his ear with a bean shooter. and mebbe they'll all it a case of sunstroke an I gallop him off to the hospital, Mr. Chimmins makes the cheerful an- They au't blame me, however. I wanted

The Man Who Stept.

It was a hot day all over New York, but there seemed to be more hotness n the be the better part of valor. He has fled Broadway cars than anywhere else. in World. one of them, which was toiling downtown from Twenty-third street, every man had his bat oil and every woman was create a breeze. As everybody felt sleepy no one was supprised when a fat man placed his dove-colored beaver on the poor bables and y ti g children in the Ohio compaign to-day. Campbell is still seat beside him and closed his eyes and slums of New York City at this season of the nodded at intervals as if some one were year. pulling a string to bring about such

Brooklyn is to be congratulated. Its steers at home had broken into the corn heat-enfected dutile creatures who are least to-day against two men, whom he asserts investigation shows that it has no leprous field, or a fin peddier had come along able to bear their assault. and hooked that sheep skin united up on the corn, will door. At any rate, his mind courts or alleyways of the tenement districts tural avoirdupois fla tened that hat as to the quick by ravenous mosquitoes and other thin as an old fashioned stress. thin as an old-fashioned siap-jack. Everybody woke up and nudged and relieve them, for the reason that ignorance chuckled and grinned-all but the fat and poverty renders the adult almost as helpman. He slept on until the conductor less as the child, and continuous scratching pethetically announced that Bleecker aids to the torture by poisoning the delicate When will there be more tone in the police street had been reached. He wanted to flesh. To see the scarred and bleeding little get off there. He awoke with a start, > looked around: "Where's my hat? Stop the car! Here, are you setting on my hat?" "Mebbe I be," said the man who wanted to find Clinton place. "Is this He held up to view a circular object which would have stopped a six-inch stove-pipe hole, with something to spare It was the hat. 'Blast you, sir, but you've ruined my hat !" shouted the owner.

"Yes-jess so-sat right down on it!" repl ed the other.

'That hat cost me $5, sir!" "Exactly. They never get much below five!"

"You sat down on it." "Yes. I know. Kinder felt it slidin" around. Better draw it on over a hitching-post to git the shape back!"

Everybody was laughing, the conductor was impatient and the man with the hat stead and furnish it with a new mattress and had to get off. What is the consequence? To one who stantial kind, he slways took a jug of old ale, a form, though, and shook his fist and called child in hand, and round out the Summer of says that they are nearly a hundred years back :

'If you'll get off the car I'll lick you in less'n two minutes!"

"dess so-jess so," replied the other. fighter, and it's too hot to wrassle anybody back-hold. Cut some notches in M. QUAD.

UNLUCKY NUMBER 13.

A Hotel Guest Who Explained Why He Refused a Room.

Leo Mandlebaum registered at the Richroom 13, says the Chicago Herald, He asked for another room at once.

"The Field Marshal could never retire without his game of whist. When he was before Sedan he had his rubber every night. The evening before his death he was phenomenal.

While matched against a skilful player many.

I'm not so bad as that, but I will not days of peach preserves and crab apple jelly

"What did you see In New York that was most like heaven, Daddie 'Rastus F' asked his Well, honey, I ain't see nuttin like I tink ob hebben, but I are suppen made me tink wot 'e could be like."

"V hat, Daddie?"
"I've deef and durab 'syjum; 'cause den I tink perhaps de calckens in de coops up deer am deef and dumb."

THE WORLD'S OFFER! A Special Midsummer Discount Until Sept. 30 on Houses & Apartments. 15 PER CENT. DISCOUNT 1 INSERTION. 25 PER CENT. DISCOUNT 2 INSERTIONS. 30 PER CENT. DISCOUNT 3 INSERTIONS.

THE WORLD: SATURDAY EVENING, AUGUST 22, 1891.

The manifold miseries of the world would wamp us all if it were not for the rescuing hand that sweet charity extends.

FAIR AT SHARON SPRINGS.

Do the Editor Guesta of Fethera's Hotel, Sharon Springs mindful of their own temporarily blessed condition, thought that in their happy suroundings they ought not to forget those un fortunate little ones who, though badly needing recreation, are deprived of the luxury of Nell Nelson Tells How the Poor salubrious fresh air in desolate homes. Upon the laudable suggestion of a ten-year-old child, Edna Isaacs, of One Hundred and of light printed muslins-blue and white or guests decided to hold a fair, the proceeds of bich to go to THE EVENING WORLD'S Sick aby Fund. The small affair took place resterday.

It is the joint desire of the guests of Fethers's Hotel that the proceeds, $34.31, may be used, under THE EVENING WORLD'S supervision, for the above-mentioned pur-As the result of the fair is especially due to the efforts of the younger occide of the hotel, it is perhaps proper to mention beir name.

They are: Edua L. Isaacs, Gwendolyn A.
Nathana, Bidde Binet, Jerome Herrzog
Sophie Octers, Richard Geis, Clarence Isaacs
Jr., Aline Pleuge, Ettie Octers, Albertus
Gehrs. J. Averagenos

St. Kimo Villa entertainment All contributions sent to "The Even Fund should be directed to Cashier, New York "World," Pulitzer Building, Packages containing clothes, &c., should be addressed to Mrs. Monerts, 56 West Thirty-fifth street. whose contribution to the Sick Baby Fund is not neknowledged in ments. these columns will confer a favor by notifying the Editor of "The Evening b the Editor Inclosed please find $6, the proceeds of an

BABES IN MISERY.

Poor Sick Bables Dying by Scores in Tenement-Houses.

Help Them to Live.

Tots Suffer.

THE SURSCRIPTIONS

Fair at Sharon Springs

Baby Hazel

fanning herself with anything that would Nell Nelson Tells What the Poor Tota Have to Contend With. Words cannot describe the sufferings of the a motion At Union Square a man victures a man victure of the local was a motion of the local was a man victure of the local was a man victure of the local was a man victure of the local was a police man where to find Clustor place got on. He might have been wonder no whether the fortures, gregorious by nature, fly in flocks.

The three-cared Zenta at one took the local kept it throughout, compassing the course, which was two and one-fith English miles, in though the was two and one-fith English miles, in the local was a police man whether the fortures, gregorious by nature, fly in flocks.

ALB. S. might have been wonder ng whether the dart about at haphazard and perch upon the

Go into any of the overcrowded streets, Perfect and Simpson are now called the second far away as he nat down alongs de and you will look tong and searchingly before the sleeper. He didn't even mind the you come across a single chi'd who is not raw noise made as his 180 pounds of agricult with prickly heat, pited with hivesor gnawed

Nothing is done by the wretched parents to bodies of these poor children is most disjumped to his feet and called out as he tressing.

The doctors do all they can to relieve them but their surroundings, their habitations, their beds and their privileges are so very mean that relief is temporary at best. The pests that damp cellars, overflowing garbageboxes and unkept streets breed are only exceeded in number by those that infest the walls of the dila idated buildings, but it is hard to say which set is the most harassing. does not have a hundred cases of this kind to prescribe for every week. Where it is impossible to have the child sent down the bay for glycerine and carbolic acid, or a soothing extract, is provided. For a permanent cure a sum sufficient to move the ramily into a habitable place and buy new furniture, or disinfect the old stock, would be required. If you care to pay a month's rent in a clean substantial house the addresses of 500 untorwhich will be in every way worthy of your Perhaps you would prefer to pay for a bed-He turned on the plat- suitable covering, or you might like to take a are not a new thing, after all. This paper his discontent with some homely, humanizing comforts. Innumerable letters are received at this office from kindly disposed persons anxious to adopt children. These letters are invari-Wall, I ain't goin' to git off. I'm no ably ignored for the reason that THE EVENING WORLD could not be responsible for the wouldbe foster-parents or the safety of the fosterchildren, nor would it be easy to find parents willing to surrender their little ones to strangers. It is, however, more than willing to bring the rich and the poor, the happy and the wretched, the able and the helpless, the strong and the weak together, in order that one may be benefited and the other assisted. No one does or can do a good deed without elieu from Germany, and was assigned to benefiting himself and helping some one There is more mission work in this city behad been in the room but a few minutes tween the bridge and Grand street. East when he came rushing into the office and Broadway and the East River than the whole African continent can produce, and the saddest "Taink I'd sleep in room 13?" he explained. 'I'd sleep in the park first.

"That ill-fated number was never so dreaded in Germany as it is to-day. In most of the hotels there it has been changed to some other number. You Moltke's death is a tributed by some to to the cashier of the Sick Bables' Fund, and that number.

your directions will be carried out to the If you can't subscribe that sum make it 50 cents or five cents, but make it something. down to play as usual, and his luck and make haste, for the staff has been en larged, the demands for free medicine, gro ceries, infants' food and clothing are inceswhite matched against a shifful player even won trick after trick. The last game he scooped the entire thirteen tricks. Them he retired.

"The fact that he died soon after taking thirteen tricks of whist has caused horror with all the superstitions people of Germany, and I assure you they are many. sant. The minimum deaths among the babies is fifty a day or 350 every week. Don't keep on intending to do good, but just take a phillieved, the fruit crop is in good shape. The p in room 13, and especially so as to-is Friday." day is Friday."

He was changed to 31 and his old room renumbered. There is no 13 in the hotel now.

Roberts will gladly dispose of. All Summer his kindness to animals. There is no 13 in the hotel now.

Roberts will gladly dispose of. All Summer his kindness to animals. When he took me to the menagerie he gave a table delicacies to tempt the appetites of whole peanut to one of the elephants."

Albany, N. Y.

Acting Upon a Child's Suggestion, $34.31 Were Raised for the Babies.

Fair in Herkimer Street.

To the Editor: Inclosed please find $3.13 realized from a private fair held by some children at the rest dence of Mrs. V. Guill, 748 Herkimer street. same, with best wishes for the Bables' Fund, and we sincerely hope that other children will do the same and try to swell the fund for relief of the little obes.

Engenia Gulli, twelve cracs old; Georgina Wood, twelve years old; Grief Gu'll, the years old; Isabel Wood, since years old; Ida Gulli, six years old, Committee of Arrango-ments.

Children at Sheepshead Bay.

ntertainment held at the St. Elmo Villa, beenshead Bay, Sunday tight, consisting of tableaux, re-flations, &c., rendered by the following children: Mass Ethel Johnson, Mass Alma Idai, Miss Alice Mooney, Miss Fairy Nabb, Miss Millie Nabb and Miss Edna Lyon. A Sailor's Dollar. Inclosed find #1 for your Sick Babica' Pund.

Fair in Harlem. Bables Fund, held at 850 East One Hundred and Sixty-first street, brought the sum of $3.60 through the working of materials by Emmy Raftey, willy Rattey, Lilly Rattey, Emmy Owens and Harry Roblizek.

Helen's Birthday Gift. Again my birthday has come. This year l

Inclosed please tind $5, our mite towards nelping your noble cause. Apply it where it any other. Saiad should not be dressed in this will do the most good. We earnestly her you will continue your good work among ti stek babies. G. and L. C.

HELEN T. B. S.

Boys' Fair in Brooklyn.

boys of First street, Brooklyn, send fit of the Sick Bables' Fund. Masters Speck, Brown, Abel, Quick and Stout. you $3, the result of a fair held for the bene-

Children in the Mountains, The children of the guests at Dorincourt.

Schooley's Mountain, N. J., have collected $1.52 for the sick bables. G. von Rehm, Manager. Woman's Temperance Union. The Williamsbridge Woman's Christian emperance Union herewith sends $5 to the uck Babies' Fund, "helping just a little. Superannuated. [From Munsey's Weekly.]

Smith-Indeed! Perhaps that is why they so often fall to work. Culinary Item. [From Texas Siftings,] She-What shall I cook for dinner? You now the cook has left and I'll have to do the sooking myselt.

He—Well, just cook me some dish that I don't like something that I wouldn't eat any how, even if it was properly cooked.

[From the Epoch.] "What kind of seeds ought I to plant, Uncle St. to get a good squash crop?" "Squash o' course. What did yer suppose?

An Extremist.

(From Pock.)
"That mild-mannered man an Anarchist? "Most of them are; but Fritz is such a thorough kicker that he won't even look like

Unprecedented. [From Munecy's Weakly.] "Here's something in the paper about a family in New England who have lived in the same house for a century."
"I heard or something stranger than that the other day—a tamily in New York who lived in the same flat for eight months."

A Bad Diagnosia. [From Judge.] Dr. Pringle-The trouble with you, Mr. Blubberton, is that you don't take enough

Hlubberton—Ah. doctah, that's vewy absurd, ye know. Me valet walks five miles evewy day of me life. A Kird Young Man. [From the Epock.]
" What I like about Charlie," said Ethel, is any other powder which I have examined; a baking powder unequaled for purity, strength and wholesomeness."

The Official Report. difficulties. Countess Toistoi, wife of the novelist, lately "The Royal Baking Powder is superior to

> What the laundresses' life is like in the still "WILLIS G. TUCKER, M. D., Ph. D.," Fads. Fancies and Fashions That Delight the Gentler Sex.

Tea-Jackets of Light-Printed Muslins-English Women Return to Square-Pointed Shoes-French Saind - Dressing - No Dress Reform for Chautauqua.

pink and white principally. These are closely tucked and trimmed with wide frillings of lace, being drawn in at the waist by ribbons. Soft slik is used for the same purpose. The sleeves are broader and fuller than they have been and are not too high.

Stockholm. There were nine boats, all rowed. by young ladles in pretty a daultable dresses On account of the presence of the French flee: the boats had been towed out in the morning. afterwards paid a visit on board the French flagship, the Marenzo, where they were presented with bouquets by the officers.

English women have returned to squareoed shoes, but the Piccadilly pointed toe in French Salad Dressing-Stir a saitspoon ful of salt and half as much pepper into a cashlers for change of a large bill, and subscam nine years old, so I send $9 to the sick and pour the whole over the saind. Turn it babies as a birthday gift. solved mix in four additional spoonfuls of oth, vinegar. Mix the whole thoroughly and serve without delay. Cucumber or common vinegar may be substituted for the tarragon, which is more frequently used in France than way until the instant before serving.

> The celebrated collection of tans brought together by Lady Charlotte Schreiber, is now deposited in the Print Room of the British

The Chautauqua dress reform is a nightnare. The Jenness Miller leglettes hung onfor four years, but that is four times as long a your house!"

"I know, but I felt my way along the garterm as Miss Willard's duplex pantaloons will den railings." survive. The most feminine thing about woman is her skirt, which will endure while there is a man alive to love, adore and admire. And as for the corset, no robust woman can be decently dressed for company without it. Those saffron-hued, slab-sided, shingle-breasted females who subsist on cambric tea, seed cakes, chip beef and canned Why, I though they were wild-looking fel- vegetables and who do not accumulate enough animal tissue to cover their own bones might as well assail skirts, whalebones and furbelows, for there is nothing in the realm of ribbons and stuffs that they can wear without desecration.

Lady Aberdeen gave a garden party to barissued invitations also to them for a breakfast at the German Exhibition on the 31st. Why doesn't Frances Willard do something of this kind now and then for the miserable girls about Chicago? Pasquelina Robertiello, the unfortunate little Italian girl who killed the father of her unborn child, has tried to support herself since the trial by finishing boys' knee-breeches, for which she is paid 9 cents a dozen. By working twelve hours a day she managed to make $1 a week. This sum barely paid for her living. When her baby daughter was born she did not have a single garment to put on it. Among those classes on whom the pinch of life comes screst there are a thousand things so hard to bear, so ter-rible to understand and so cruelly unjust, that crime often seems to be the only escape from unbearable and seemingly unending nade a successful business trip of St. Pe ersburg. She secured an audience with the Emperor, who was extremely amiable to her, and promised to protect her husband from all the annoyance to which the Committee of Censors has been subjecting him.

far too numerous, small laundries, one hardly likes to think. Take the account given by one of the laundresses present at the meeting in the park. "I have worked on Tuesday from 8 A. M. to 10.30 F. M.; on Wednesday and Thursday from S A. M. to 11 P. M.; and from S a. M. on Thursday until Friday morning at 1. My meals were taken in corners by the copper which might boil over me. The waste pipe has often clogged the drain and flooded the place, when those of us who could get a board stood on it, and those who couldn't had to do the best they might. I was laid up with sciatica through it. There was no vents ation, or else too much of it. In one place the wash-house was in an empty stable, and the wind and the rain drifted in and wetted us to the skin." Add to this the fur her statement of another woman concerning in fection. "What is done in the case of the children catching measles, you ask? Wellit's like this: If the doctor finds it out the linen has to be given out elsewhere; but then the doctor ain't always called in, you see they dodge him if they can, and there is man; a child down with the measles, or it may be scarlet fever, that has been nursed in the thick of it. Oh, yes, there are beds in some of the ironing-rooms, but not in all !"

THE CLEANER.

Citizen George Francis Train writes me that his private secretary, John N. Kleusch, is on his way here from Tacoma to engage in a fifty days' fasting contest for $10,000 with T. J. Weish and J. B. Collier, who have records of thirty days' fasts, and Charles Henderson, who has a twenty-five days' record. A committee of physicians, he says, will watch the KILLING EXTERNAL and INTERNAL PARE

Frank Sperry, Col. Erhardt's private secretary, will start for the West to-day on a hunting and fishing trip, I am told. The Colonel will accompany him. Mr. Sperry bade adjeu to the Custom-House yesterday, he having held over to oblige Collector Fassett.

If you want to find anybody in the Seventeenth Assembly District on the evening of Sept. 1, you will save time by going to Lion Park. The Patrick H. McManus Association will hold a Summer-night festival on that date, and it is safe to say that all but the iged and crippled will attend it. end in the homes of sensible people

I am told that Rene Raoul Duval, who is shortly to wed Mrs. James Brown Potter's sister, is a nephew of Leon Say, the French statesman. Mr. Duval, sr., is at the head of the gas works of Naples and Paris, and is said to have an annual income of $200,000.

An intoxicated man, with a package of eggs inder his arm, started to walk across the bridge the other evening. The paper bag grace that he is kept in office when we know bridge the other evening. The paper buy got to rains me way, and at every furch an that the streets are not cleaned properly, egg dropped with the traditional dull thud. What does he do with the millions of dollars Afterl sing about hair his burden he suddenly became aware of the big fall in hen waits is more brooms and shovels and less politics. Keep it up; you are right this time. Then, surveying his every trail with a mandlin smile, he continued his uncertain journey.

I am told that Sadte Traphagen, the friend of unfortunate Annie Goodwin, will shortly go upon the stage.

departments. . . .

walks are appropriated by dealers in merchandise, was forcibbly illustrated by a chandise, was forcibbly illustrated by a Tethe Littor:
scene I witnessed a day or two ago on West Returning from a trip through Europe, One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, about 4 r. M. In front of a big market, where piles ing London, Dublin, Glasgow, &c., I was more

Judge Peterby-Yes, and what do you suppose I found the day after I got there? Yerger—A pocke:-book full of money? Peterby—I found out that it costs a mint of money to stay there, so I came home on the next train. Cause for Anxiety. anything the matter with my lungs?

[From Judge.]
Mrs. de Grampcey...Where did you get your

Mrs. Downey—No; in South Dakota. Mrs. de Grampeey—Is that so? I must try South Dakota the next time. One gets wedded so easily to Chicago in such matters. Cause and Effect.

tivorce, Mrs. Downey—in Chicago?

There isn't as good" as any "just

[From Puck.] Mrs. Solomon—George, I shall need a new pair of slippers this week. The soles of these old ones are completely worn out.

Johnny Solomon—Papa, I shall need a new pair of trousers this week. The seat of these old ones are completely worn out.

ROOT BEER EXTRACT = Don't be persuaded to ake any other.

25 cents a bettle.

wonderful power of No wonder then that it is found on The Surgeon's Shelf The Mother's Cupboard The Traveler's Valise, The Soldier's Knapsack The Sailor's Chest The Cowboy's Saddle The Farmer's Stable The Pioneer's Cabin The Sportsman's Grip

PERRY DAVIS'

IT BANISHES PAIN. OUT OF THE MAIL BAG

The Cyclist's Bundle

More Brooms-Less Politics. The best thing you ever did was when you showed up Commissioner Beattie. It is a disa just cause than to you, in attempting to solve the street-cleaning problem, which you have been so successfully agitating. There The film-fiam game is being played in the large dry-goods stores uptown. The sharper's plan is to ask one of the many girl cashlers for change of a large bill, and subsequently gets her so confused that it is an easy matter to get away with $5 or so. In some of the stores the girls have been instructed to refuse change to anybody except heads of departments. clean streets the Department requires a good cleaning itself. Independent Democrat.

Compared to Foreign Cities.

where I visited all the principal cities, includand stacks of fruits and vegetables already took up a third of the sidewalk, there sat a group of half a dozen employees with baskets, husking corn! That the roughfare, always through discovering the strength of the sidewalk, there sat a group of half a dozen employees with baskets, husking corn! That the roughfare, always through discovering the strength of the sidewalk, the place of the fance of the global doubt, in no place on the fance of the fance of the streets in such a territole state of fith addition up to the global doubt, in no place on the fance of the fance than horrified at the state of the streets of

The Street Commissioner evidently neglecture his duty.

A DISGUSTED TAXPATER Clean Streets with Water.

To the Editor As we have had a problem before us for a couple of years as to what is the best method (From the Pharmaceutical Era.) how to have clean streets, I have a novel clean streets and the clean streets and the clean streets are clean streets. how to have clean streets, I have a novel Old Lady—Doctor, do you think there is anything the matter with my iungs?

Physician (after a careful examination)—I find, madam, that your iungs are in a normal condition.

Old Lady (with a sigh of resignation)—And about how long can I expect to live with them in that condition?

Rapid Transit.

[Prom the King's Jester.]

"How did you get home last night, Tom?" asked his friend on the morning after a racket.

"I went by rail," replied Tom.

"By rail! Why, there's no train goes near your house!"

"I know, but I felt my way along the garden railings."

Would Try It Later.

[Prom Judgs.]

Would Try It Later.

[Prom Judgs.]

Would Try It Later.

[Prom Judgs.]

Would Grampeey—Where did you get your feeders, and especially before the superfusement of unditing lay this before your readers, and especially before the superfusement of unditing lay this before your readers, and especially before the superfusement. Hoping you will kindly lay this before your readers, and especially before the superfusement.

Hoping you will kindly lay this before your readers, and especially before the superfusement.

Hoping you will kindly lay this before your readers, and especially before the superfusement.

Hoping you will kindly lay this before your readers, and especially before the superfusement. in every block appointed

Spoke Before He Thought-

Old Snooks had fallen asleep behind the stove. A little hunchback soon after came is and stood in front of the heater, and Snocks, awaking suddenly, caught sight of him as once. "Here, young fellow," he said quickly, "get away from that stove. You're getting Summer Yachting.

[From Judge.] Skipper—Has that boat in front of us gone

Fair Passenger—Yes; about a mile.

A cool

reception is found in

Knapps Knapps

It gives a hot wave fits in five os cente a botrio. Grocers and Druggett